Dear Jack:

Enclosed is a note which I received from [redacted]
As you know, I am sympathetic towards his work and realize that he has to interview a great number of people in order to accomplish his mission. However, if he wants to see Secretary Lovett, General Smith is the person to arrange it. I wouldn't be sure from where I sit whether [redacted] really needs to see Mr. Lovett and with this doubt in mind I certainly am not going to write to Lovett.

Very sincerely,

[redacted]

William H. Jackson
